11 Top Russians 'Re-elected' to Rule Nation

BY STANLEY JOHNSON
MOSCOW (AP)—The Central Committee of the Soviet Communist Party today re-elected the 11 members of its ruling Presidium. Nikita S. Khrushchev was re-elected first secretary.

Defense Minister Georgi K. Zhukov, World War II hero, became a candidate (alternate) member of the ruling body, which was known in Stalin's day as the Politburo. Thus the so-called collective leadership of the Soviet Union remained unchanged at the close of the 20th Congress of the Soviet Communist party. As first secretary, Khrushchev remains boss of the party, a position he assumed in 1953 when Georgi Malenkov relinquished the job. The first secretary is in a position to control the vast party apparatus throughout the country.

The party elected six candidate (alternate) members, an increase of four. Among them was the first woman ever to serve on the ruling party body. A party secretary of eight members, headed by Khrushchev, also was elected. These are the presidium members:

Khrushchev, first secretary of the party and a deputy in the Supreme Soviet (Parliament). He has been the dominant personality in the party since the fall of 1953 when he took over its leadership, while Malenkov still was premier.

Nikolai A. Bulganin, who succeeded Malenkov as premier early in 1955.

Lazar M. Kaganovich, a first deputy premier, Supreme Soviet deputy and head of a wages and hours commission for Soviet industry.

Malenkov, former premier until he confessed failure at the job and now a deputy premier, minister of electric power stations and Supreme Soviet deputy. His ministry came under fire at the recent party congress.

A. I. Mikoyan, a first deputy premier, Supreme Soviet deputy and foreign trade expert.

V. M. Molotov, first deputy premier, foreign minister, Supreme Soviet deputy. He confessed to an error in ideology recently.

Mikhail G. Pervukhin, first deputy and Malenkov's boss as a leading Soviet industrialist.

Maxim Z. Saburov, first deputy premier, chairman of the State Planning Commission and a Supreme Soviet deputy.

K. Y. Voroshilov, a Soviet marshal and comrade of Stalin who now is chairman of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet, and in effect, President, but without presidential power.

M. A. Suslov, first named to the Presidium last July, former editor of Pravda and long a Central Committee member.

A. I. Kirichenko, named to the Presidium with Suslov in July. He came up from the Ukraine party organization — once Khrushchev's — where he was first secretary. Member of the Supreme Soviet.

Westmoreland Sale Confirmed by Judge
Sale by the government of $1,400,000 worth of the defunct Westmoreland Manganese Corporation's property was confirmed here Friday by Judge Harry J. Lemley after a hearing in the bedroom of his home.

The government last year foreclosed on the Batesville company's property in an effort to obtain three million dollars it had loaned the company for manganese production. Land, machinery and buildings recently sold for about $1,400,000 at auction.

Judge Lemley, who has an ankle injury, heard Westmoreland attorney Fuller Highsmith's arguments that confirmation of the sale should be delayed until Westmoreland's appeal has been heard by the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals in St. Louis. The judge denied this request and in a separate action confirmed the sale.

To Discuss Defense of Nuclear Weapons
WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman Lewis Strauss of the Atomic Energy Commission says tests this spring will put emphasis on defensive nuclear weapons "designed to blunt an attack."

He said such devices could include "weapons against incoming planes or an incoming missile." Eventually, he said, he hopes the atomic program will include weapons for "all kinds of defensive purposes — except hand grenades."

The AEC has said it will conduct tests at its Pacific proving ground this spring. No date has been announced.

Barn Burns on 23rd Street

A barn owned by R. E. Smiley caught fire and burned on 23rd Street near Hope City limits Saturday about 6:30. The blaze is believed to have caught from a grass fire. The barn contained some hay, tools and harness.

Dust Storm Clouds Areas in Southwest

By United Press
A new storm center kicked up dust clouds in the Southwest today and raced along the path blazed by Saturday's killer winds and tornadoes.

U.S. weather forecasters did not expect a renewal of the weekend blast, which left at least 14 dead across the nation according to a United Press count.

However, weathermen predicted a clash with warmer air in the storm's push toward the Ohio Valley. They warned of strengthening winds over a widespread area.

More dust was expected in the Southwest, which weathered its worst dust storm of the season Friday and Saturday. The new dusts cut visibility to a mile and less in West Texas yesterday and ground-churning winds hit as high as 100 miles per hour in New Mexico.

In the Midwest, and particularly in southern Illinois, there was a major job of rebuilding to do.

The little town of Summerfield, Ill., hardest hit by Saturday's twisters, lay in ruins. Most of its buildings were flattened or wrecked and hundreds of families in the town and surroundings at St. Clair county were homeless.

12 Nations to Talk Over Atom for Peace

By WARREN ROGERS JR.
WASHINGTON (AP)—Twelve nations today start a conference that shapes up as a contest between the United States and Russia over the form of a proposed world atom-for-peace agency.

The Russians want it set up under the United Nations Security Council, where their veto can be effectively used in running its affairs. The United States wants it to have more autonomy — as a specialized agency tied to the U. N. only by a commitment to report once a year.

American officials are reported optimistic that the closed-door conference, expected to last about two weeks, will reach agreement on a proposed charter which already has been approved by eight of the participating nations.

Officials are said to believe there is a good chance that the Soviets will accept the charter without the veto provision. They say that under Moscow's new line, emphasizing peace and cooperation with the rest of the world, Soviet leaders cannot afford to refuse to do so.

The United States is slowly assembling a radar warning system — in the air, on the ground, at sea — which will reach around almost half the globe.

The Distant Early Warning Line (DEW) being built in secret places on the polar rim of the North American continent is only a component of the vast system intended ultimately to give warning to this country of enemy aircraft (and perhaps later missiles) approaching from almost any point of the compass.

Stations somewhat similar to the powerful radar installations going into the DEW line are appearing in far corners of the world — in Okinawa and other far Western Pacific islands; on inlets in the Central Pacific; in the Hawaiian group; up in the strategically critical archipelago of Alaska; in Greenland; far southward in the Caribbean.

Texas towers are being built in coastal waters to extend the fixed position stations of the radar chains across Canada and the United States.

Unlike the continental American radar systems, the overseas stations cannot be considered a warning chain. There are, of course, huge gaps of thousands of miles which the mainland and island stations cannot cover by overlapping range of their radar units.

Into these gaps, the United States through its Navy and Air Force is putting plugs. They are planes and ships.

Big 'Thank You' Due From Arkansas to Republic Films for Picture at the Saenger

By ALEX H. WASHBURN

The greatest tribute to Arkansas ever done in words or pictures, and the finest family movie in a decade, is "Come Next Spring" which opened at Hope's Saenger theater Sunday.

You'll be a better Arkansan, a better American, a better man or woman, for having seen it.

For this is our country that it speaks of, and our people — and its message is that good neighbors are the salt of the earth. The picture jumps into your heart with the opening scene of a long-lost father coming home to his farm family — and it never escapes your enthralled attention until Steve Cochran finally fights his way back to the love of his family and the respect of the community.

Book Tarkington once told me back in my cub reporter's days (and later used the same definition in a magazine article). "The problem of writing is to get the ink out of it" . . . that is, to evoke a story so intense and vivid that you remember the tale without noticing the brick-and-mortar words that created it. And so, "Come Next Spring" casts a spell over the theater screen that grabs you and declares: "This is no movie — but a man's true life, of how he came home from his wanderings, recaptured his family, and at last, by the grace of God, heard the voice of his little girl who could not talk."

The motion picture is as perfect as anything Hollywood ever has done — and that Herbert J. Yates and his Republic Pictures organization happened to give this magnificent treatment to an Arkansas story (spelling out our state's name at the very beginning) is something for which Arkansas should give public thanks.

"Come Next Spring" gives Arkansas a good name. It does more than that. It jerks some of our faltering brothers and sisters back to the realities of American life and American democracy. Are you fed up with those who mumble, "We are a poor state"? All people are poor to begin with. And if they have not courage and guts and faith and honesty while poor then all the money they may acquire in later years still leaves them as human trash.

There are no rich folks in "Come Next Spring" — but the finest people, and the most lovable characters, you will ever see in a movie. For me, the standout scenes were, (1) When Steve Cochran bores off the charge of an army of hogs and (2) An absolutely enthralling scene in a cyclone-cellar as the terror beat on the roof, smashed up the landscape, and finally went away. It's the best "theater" Hollywood has ever done.

And the cast are all great: Ann Sheridan as the mother, Walter Brennan and Edgar Buchanan as a couple of neighborhood characters — and two entrancing child actors, Richard Eyer as the small boy, and Sherry Jackson . . . the little girl who because she could not talk wandered through the night communing with the dumb creatures of the forest — until a kindly Providence looked down and touched her and gave her the gift of speech.

Final Rites Held Sunday for P. J. Drake, 73
P. J. Drake, aged 73, well known Hope businessman, died Friday in a local hospital. Mr. Drake had lived in Hope for many years.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lena Drake, two brothers, Napoleon Drake and Wiley Drake of Stephens and two sisters, Mrs. T. Taylor and Miss Lee Drake of Stephens.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Sunday at Herndon-Cornelius Funeral Home Chapel by the Rev. S. A. Whitlow. Burial was at Smith Cemetery at Waldo.

Thief Has Urge When Sees a Church
LOS ANGELES (AP)—A man arrested at a church on suspicion of burglary was quoted by police:

"Every time I pass a church, I get the urge. I always break into churches. It's my livelihood. I never rob anything other than churches."

Police said Wesley S. Pond, 38, served a year and a half in San Quentin Prison in 1951-52 for church burglaries and another six months in the county jail last year for the same offense. Since his release Dec. 20, detectives quoted him, he has burglarized 10 more churches.

Governor Will Fight Quick Integration

By CLIFTON WELLS
Of The Associated Press

It's official now: The Faubus administration is seeking a way to prevent "sudden and complete" racial integration of Arkansas' public schools.

At his press conference Saturday, at which an interim report of a quasi-official pro-segregation committee was released, Gov. Orval Faubus indicated that he would actively partake in a move to thwart any campaign in Arkansas for immediate segregation.

A majority of the people of Arkansas oppose integration and "every effort must be taken to protect the rights and inclinations of the vast majority," Faubus said.

The governor said the best course Arkansas apparently could follow would be a pupil assignment plan which would allow local school authorities to assign students to a particular school. Such a system in Arkansas would require legislation.

Faubus said, however, that he "contemplates no special session of the Legislature at the time" to act on segregation bills, but he did not rule out the possibility.

A 5-man committee undertook a study of steps being taken by the state of Virginia to preserve segregation. The group was headed by Marvin Bird of Earle, chairman of the state Board of Education. Its other members. All from east Arkansas where the state's Negro population is greatest, were Richard B. McCulloch Sr., of Forrest City, Bert G. Dickey of West Memphis, Charles Adams of Hughes and former Lt. Gov. J. L. (Tex) Shaver of Wynne.

Their 22-page report suggested three basic steps: (1) The doctrine of interposition as adopted by Virginia, (2) tuition grants under a private segregated school system and (3) a pupil assignment system.

The Arkansas committee said it believes that Arkansas, "by whatever measures may be most appropriate, should affirm" the principle in the Virginia Resolution: "That whenever the Federal Government attempts the deliberate, palpable, and dangerous exercise of powers not granted to it, the States . . . have the right, and are duty bound, to interpose for arresting the progress of evil, and preserving the authorities, rights and liberties appertaining to them."

The committee pointed out, however, that the attorney general of Virginia had stated that the resolution in no way nullified the Supreme Court decision; nor did the Virginia Legislature or the people of the state have the right to nullify or to suspend the high court ruling.

The interposition doctrine, was advocated by a resolution adopted by Kentucky in 1798 which said "whenever the General Government assumes undelegated powers, its acts are unauthorized, void and of no force."

The interposition doctrine, was doctrine on the 9th and 10th amendments to the U. S. Constitution.

Amendment No. 9 provides: The enumeration in the Constitution of certain rights shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people."

Amendment No. 10 provides: "The powers not delegated to the states, or to the people."

One thing is for certain, this section is taking the spotlight away from the rest of Arkansas in basketball this year . . . Hope's fighting Junior team, not even considered in pretourney speculation, fought right down to the finals before losing the Leachville in the State Class A title game . . . everyone is plenty proud of the boys for they really did it the hard way . . . then at Texarkana Emerson defeated Ashdown for the State girls title . . . local fans will recall that Hope has beaten both Ashdown and Emerson, so that puts the local girls right on par with the best in the state . . . if they had just switched nights when they beat Ashdown the Hope ladies could easily have been in the final game for the State title.

Court Denies Rehearing in Feed Tax Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court today refused to review a decision by which it knocked out a proposed popular vote on legislative exemption of farm feed from the state sales tax.

The clincher left the way clear for the State Revenue Department to begin exempting poultry and livestock growers from paying the tax on the feed.

It also will make it possible to begin refunding around $300,000 which has been paid as tax under protest since 1949 when the legislative exemption would have been effective if petitions for a popular vote had not been filed.

Revenue Commissioner J. Orville Cheney said exemption forms, which must be about 1,000 persons.

He said dealers who had collected the protested tax and remitted it to the Revenue Department will have to furnish receipts showing they have returned the money to seed purchasers before remittance will be sent them.

Alex H. Washburn, Hope newspaper publisher, led a campaign to refer the 1955 act to a vote at the November general election.

If the vote had materialized and had been against the exemption, the legislative action would have been nullified.

The Supreme Court said Jan. 23 that certain technical requirements were not met by the referendum petition, which carried more than 30,000 signatures. This ruling invalidated the proposed popular vote.

Today's action denied a petition for a rehearing, something that is almost never granted. Associates Justices Minor Millwee and Ed McFaddin dissented, as they had to the original ruling.

Ike Plans News Conference, May Tell Plans

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House said today that "in all probability" President Eisenhower will hold a news conference Wednesday. But all questions as to whether he may announce his second term intentions ran into a wall of "no comment."

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty, who said a news conference was probable, said he didn't know what time it might be held — assuming there was one.

Asked whether the stock market situation would affect the timing, Hagerty said: "I have no comment whatever."

Would the President announce his plans before the news conference? "I wouldn't know," the secretary replied.

There has been speculation that the president might time any announcement of his plans to come after 3:30 p. m. (2:30 p. m. CST).

Eisenhower has expressed concern over past stock market reactions stemming from his heart attack and related developments. Hence the speculation that he might hold up his announcement until after the 3:30 o'clock market closing time for the New York Exchange.

Parish Leader Raps Catholic Institutions

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—An Orleans Parish county School Board member who is pledged to maintain racial segregation has accused Roman Catholic institutions of perhaps "unwittingly aligning themselves with sinister forces."

Emile A. Wagner Jr. made the assertion yesterday after a non-segregated interracial meeting at Loyola of the South, a Catholic university. Hulan E. Jack, Negro president of New York City's borough of Manhattan, shared the speakers' platform with Archbishop Joseph Francis Rummel.

Wagner, a Catholic and Loyola alumnus, said in a statement criticizing the university that "certain institutions and agencies in their zeal to force racial integration upon an unwilling and intellectually sincere majority may be unwittingly aligning themselves with sinister forces which are working to bring about . . . the destruction of the democratic way of life."

Rummel, in his speech, had similar charges to make of segregation defenders. The archbishop said they may be "doing the work of those striving to introduce the principles of atheism and infidelity and the principles of communism in the United States."

When compliance is checked, the farm will be considered to be within the farm acreage allotment if the crop is planted within the premeasured area.

Negro Shot, Little Hope for Recovery

A Negro man with a bullet lodged in his brain continued to live in a Memorial Hospital at noon today but there was no hope for his recovery.

City Officers said Godfred G. Moses, about 40, was shot about 5 a. m. Sunday at 1200 Oak Street following an argument with Arretha Cooper, Negro woman. Details of the shooting were not available at the present time pending further investigation.

Chief of Police Jack Brown said Moses was shot with a .32 automatic pistol. He said the bullet struck Moses in the mouth and lodged in his brain. The woman is being held on open charge for the present.

City Officers also reported that Jimmy Lee Griner, Negro, was charged with assault and battery following an altercation Sunday in which Chester Johnson was hit on the finger with a knife. The incident occurred at Jack Cannon's place, officers said.

Storm Warning for Arkansas Lifted

MEMPHIS (AP)—The U.S. Weather Bureau today issued and then lifted a severe weather alert for extreme northeast Arkansas and extreme southeast Missouri.

Still under the alert was all of west Tennessee except the extreme west and southeast portions. The bureau said the danger of severe thunderstorms and tornadoes in the area still under alert would continue until 6 p. m.

Bill Proposing Election Cost Is Suggested

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new elections bill which would permit individual senatorial candidates and their backers to spend from $100,000 up to a maximum of $1,910,000 in their campaigns may be introduced in the Senate this week.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Democratic leader, told reporters he has "every reason to believe we will have complete and wholehearted cooperation" from members of both parties in support of the new bill.

"We are going to insist that action be taken in this session of Congress on a complete, realistic measure encouraging the fullest public participation and the fullest public review of all elections," Johnson said.

"The unrealistic limitations in present statutes will be changed. I have no doubt that a new, modern elections bill will be passed by Congress which will put all contributions under the scrutinizing eye of public opinion. And it will carry the machinery for its enforcement."

Johnson said he has talked to influential House members and believes they will support a bill similar to that he is working out in cooperation with Sen. Knowland of California, Senate GOP leader.

Growers Can Get Official Measurement

Hempstead County cotton growers can arrange official measurement of their 1956 farm cotton allotments prior to planting time, the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee announced this week.

To get the premeasurement service, which is being provided on a cost basis, a cotton farmer must file a written request with the County ASC Office prior to March 30, 1956, says Mr. Gilbert, Chairman of the committee.

The rate to be charged for the service in Hempstead County has been established at $6.00 per farm, plus 30¢ per acre for the first 50 acres, plus 5¢ per acre for all acres in excess of 50, and payment based on this rate must be made at the time the request for measurement is filed.

"The premeasurement is purely optional," says Mr. Gilbert, "and is offered as a service to growers who prefer to have an official measurement to use as a planting guide."

The chairman explains that all cotton acreage in the county will be measured as soon as possible after the cotton "comes up" to determine compliance with the acreage allotments-marketing quota program. When compliance is checked, the farm will be considered to be within the farm acreage allotment if the crop is planted within the premeasured area.

Decision Split on Damage Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—By a 4-to-3 decision, the Arkansas Supreme Court today refused to prohibit Green Circuit Judge Charles W. Light from conducting trial of a personal injury suit growing out of an automobile accident.

The court majority said the only question was whether Green Circuit Court first acquired jurisdiction. The opinion placed jurisdiction in the Greene county and said a clerical error in a summons issued by a court clerk did not affect validity.

Eleven Killed in Crash of Jet Bomber in Ohio

DAYTON, O. (INS)—A four-engine B-50 jet bomber crashed into a farm house near Dayton today shortly after take-off explosion on impact and apparently killed the 11 men aboard.

Wright-Patterson Air Force base, where the plane was based, said it was on a routine training flight, but admitted that the plane belonged to the Wright Air Development Center, which has been conducting experiments and tests have carried some military scientists.

Four of the men aboard were said to be civilians and seven were military personnel. Names were withheld pending notification of next-of-kin.

An eyewitness said that he saw the plane "circling very low." He added that all four engines were operating when suddenly the plane "plummeted" to earth and exploded.

Wright Patterson said the accident occurred just 12 minutes before noon. Shortly after the plane took off.

The farm house was not occupied at the time, the Air Force announced.

A spokesman at the base said he did not

SMU Uses Free Throws to Win Over Porkers By The Associated Press

Little business is left to transact in the Southwest Conference race which, for all vital purposes, ran its course Saturday night when Southern Methodist won its second championship in a row.

The versatile Methodist stormed from behind to beat Arkansas 80-72, win their eleventh straight conference game and run their season record to 21-2. They now look toward Houston for their final game Tuesday with Rice when the Mustangs will try to finish the race unbeaten.

The final week opens with Rice and Arkansas tied for second place, Texas Fourth, Texas A&M fifth, Baylor sixth and Texas Christian seventh. Arkansas and Texas Christian play at Fayetteville Tuesday night while Texas A&M and Texas meet at Austin.

Arkansas still will have two inter-sectional games on the schedule before winding up the season. The Razorbacks play Tulsa at Tulsa Thursday night and St. Louis at Fayetteville next Monday night.

Southern Methodist waits for the Border Conference to decide a champion among Texas Western, New Mexico A&M and Texas Tech. That team will meet Southern Methodist at Wichita, Kans., March 18 and the winner there will go to the NCAA regional tournament at Lawrence, Kans., March 16, playing the Missouri Valley champion in the first round.

Southern Methodist cashed in on 38 free throws in 41 attempts to furnish the margin of victory over Arkansas, which bested the Methodists in field goals. The SMU hot-shots, Larry Showalter and Jan Krebs, were held to four and two points respectively but Joel Krog made 22 points. Bobby Mills 21, Rick Herscher 17 and Ronnie Morris 14.

While SMU was wrapping up the conference championship, Texas was beating Baylor 101-95 to move into fourth place in the standings. Ray Downs pitched in 49 points to run his season total to 592 and make him the leader. Dick O'Neal of Texas Christian fell to second with 559.

Watkins, Graves All-State; Hope Loses in Finals

Leachville defeated the Hope Bobkittens 50 to 32 Saturday night to cop the state Junior title.

Dave Watkins, Hope guard opened the game with a field goal and Tommy Kennett, Leachville guard, set the game picture as he came back to tie it with an outside shot.

The game, marked of starring both guards, showed Kennett and Watkins leading scorers with 10 points each.

Hope, hardly mentioned as a contender in pretournament talk, outscored the highly favored Leachville team only in the third period when they came within two points of tying the score.

From then on Leachville, playing on their home court, pulled away to the state title.

Hope had defeated Russellville, Jonesboro and Newport to reach the finals.

The all-state team included two Hope players, Johnny Graves and David Watkins. Steve Smith of Newport, Calvin Powell and Tommy Kennett of Leachville. Bill Hair of Hope received honorable mention.

Taking part in the championship game for Hope was Watkins (16), Hair (7), Hatfield (1), Foster (3), Graves (2), Brown (1), Stone and Formby. The Junior Bobkittens are coached by John Pearce.

Reports that eagles carry off animals weighing up to 50 pounds and eat up to 40 pounds of meat at a time are collected obvious and gross exaggerations by game experts who say that a small fraction of those weights are all that any known eagle can handle.

Lopez to Give Indians a Shakeup

By The Associated Press
Manager Al Lopez of the Cleveland Indians apparently has decided to give his team the "shake well" treatment in an effort to head off the New York Yankees in the American League pennant chase.

He met with his club today in its Tucson, Ariz., camp and announced that Al Smith was the only player on hand who was certain of the job.

"And he doesn't have a set position," added Lopez. Smith, named the Player of the Year by the Cleveland baseball writers last season, played six positions in 1955.

"The young fellows have just as much chance as anyone else of winning a place on the team," said Lopez. "One hustling young player sometimes can give the whole club a lift."

Emmet Junior Girls Win Title

Emmet Junior Girls won District Tournament played at Murfreesboro Saturday. They defeated Guernsey, Bright Star and Delight to win the championship. Jaunita Dougan was selected as all District team.

said Lopez. "One hustling young player sometimes can give the whole club a lift."

Engineering and Horse Races

A wondrous and complex engineering masterpiece called the Totalisator is used at Oaklawn Jockey Club to determine the odds and payoff on each horse race.

Each Totalisator unit is serviced by a trained crew of electricians and mechanics under an engineer.

The Totalisator equipment consists of three general groups — ticket issuing machines, indicators and adding machines. The heart of the system is the adding machine. By means of the cables and impulses from the ticket machines these adding machines receive, sort and register the wagers coming in constantly.

From the adding machines another set of cables leads to the indicator board in front of the stands. On this board the amount of the wagers in each pool is shown in electric numerals and thus the totals in the adding machines are automatically and constantly transmitted to the indicators for the public to see.

Calculators compute payoff prices for their respective pool and the odds are shown on the board.
